Simuel Jenkins, aged 8, was struck and run over by a jitney bus driven by diana infantry. Daniel McConnell, a few minutes after he had left the Lincoln school building, East Moline, yesterday af grnoon, With two severe fractures of the skull, a broken nose and body bruises, the child is not expected to recover.

One of the fractures is at the base of the skull, while the other is a fiveinch crack in the frontal bones. The boy is now in the Moline city hospital. The little fellow is believed to have been on his way home when the accihe had just left the school house where he is a pupil. According to the story told by the driver the child was hanging to the rear of a tea wagon. The automobile, going east, approached from the rear, McConnell blowing his horn as he started to pass.

The boy hopped off the wagon with his back to the machine, alighting almost directly in its path.
